

Selling & Offer Management

docs.wetransact.io/selling-and-offer-management

How to create a Private Offer?

Creating a private offer in the WeTransact portal lets you provide a custom, non-public deal to a specific customer with tailored pricing and terms. You define the offer details, select the target customer, set the validity period, and publish it so only that customer can view and accept it through the Marketplace.

Read More>

How to Find the Billing ID?

Finding your Billing ID helps you identify the unique billing account number needed when creating a private offer, ensuring the offer is correctly linked to the customer's payment account.

Read More>

How to creating a private Plan?

Creating a private plan in the WeTransact portal allows you to offer customized pricing and terms for a specific customer while keeping it hidden from the public listing. You set the plan details, assign it to the intended customer, and publish it so only they can access and purchase it via the Marketplace.

Read More>

How to find your Tenant ID in Azure portal?

Finding your Tenant ID in Azure gives you the unique directory identifier needed to create a private plan, ensuring the offer is correctly assigned to the intended customer's Azure Active Directory tenant.

Read More>

How to find a private plan?

This guide explains how to find a private plan in the Azure portal. Private plans are only visible to customers they are assigned to and can be accessed by signing in and under the private plan tab.

Read More>

Where to find your Private Offers ?

In Azure portal, the Private Offers section lets you view, manage, and track all your customized, non-public offers for you.

Read More>

How to accept a Private Offer? - Customer walkthrough

Accepting a private offer allows the customer to review the custom terms and pricing, confirm the purchase through their Azure subscription, and gain access to the solution as agreed with the publisher.

Read More>

How to set up a new subscription (Azure)?

Setting up a new Azure subscription provides a dedicated billing and resource management container for your services, enabling you to deploy, manage, and track usage for solutions purchased or provisioned through the Marketplace.

Read More>

How can I verify a user's rights to complete a purchase?

To complete a purchase on Azure Marketplace, a user must have either Owner or Contributor rights on the target subscription. You can quickly verify whether a user has the correct permissions by following these steps

Read More>

How to purchase a WeTransact solution?

Purchasing the WeTransact solution involves selecting the desired subscription plan from the Marketplace listing, reviewing the pricing and terms, and completing the checkout through your Azure subscription, after which the solution will be provisioned in your account.

Read More>

How to complete a purchase of a solution on Azure Marketplace (generic)?

Purchasing the solution involves selecting the desired subscription plan from the Marketplace listing, reviewing the pricing and terms, and completing the checkout through your Azure subscription, after which the solution will be provisioned in your account.

Read More>

How to Cancel a Subscription in Azure Portal?

Canceling a subscription in the Microsoft Azure Portal stops future billing and access to the associated services. This can be done from the Subscriptions section by selecting the subscription and choosing the cancellation option.

Read More>

How do I turn off Auto Renew on Azure Subscriptions?

If you don't want your subscription to renew automatically, you can turn off the auto-renewal option in the Azure portal. This ensures the subscription ends at the current term without generating a new billing cycle.

Read More>

How to verify a subscription is cancelled?

Verifying the subscription is cancelled ensures billing has stopped and the service is no longer active.

Read more>

How to Fix a Suspended Subscription?

Fixing a suspended subscription involves addressing the issue that caused the suspension—such as updating payment details or resolving policy violations—so the subscription can be reactivated and services restored.

Read More>

How to Assign Yourself as a Subscription Owner Without Prior Access (As a Global Admin)?

As a Global Admin, you can assign yourself as a subscription owner without prior access by elevating your permissions in Azure, taking ownership of the subscription, and granting yourself full management rights to perform necessary actions.

Read More>

How to Create a Billing Support Request in the Microsoft Azure Portal?

Creating a billing support request in the Microsoft Azure Portal allows you to get help from Microsoft for payment, invoicing, or subscription charge issues, ensuring they are addressed quickly through official support channels.

Read More>

How to find your marketplace invoice?

Finding your Marketplace invoice in Partner Center lets you review charges for your Marketplace transactions, helping you track payments, reconcile accounts, and maintain accurate financial records.

Read More>

How to find your subscription ID?

Finding a subscription ID in Azure gives you the unique identifier needed to manage resources, link purchases, or set up private offers tied to that specific subscription.

Read More>

How to configure a SaaS account in Azure Portal?

If you need to configure your account after already creating a subscription, follow steps below

Read More>

How to check if auto-renewal is on for your Azure subscriptions?

If you want to check auto-renew on your Azure subscriptions to ensure whether your services will automatically renew at the end of the term, helping you manage costs and avoid unexpected charges.

Read More>

How do I change the billing region in Azure Marketplace?

Switching billing regions allows you to review your pricing in different currencies.

Read More>

How do you assign the billing administrator role in Microsoft Azure Portal?

If you want to assign the Billing Administrator role, you can give a user permissions to manage billing, payments, and invoices in your Azure account.

Read More>

How to action admin consent requests?

Actioning admin consent requests allows a Global Admin to review and approve application permission requests, ensuring secure access to organizational data while maintaining compliance and control.

Read More>

How to pay your marketplace invoices?

Accessing and settling your Marketplace invoices ensures you can review charges for your purchases and make timely payments, helping maintain good standing and uninterrupted access to services.

Read More>