If you don't want your subscription to renew automatically, you can turn off the auto-renewal option in the Azure portal. This ensures the subscription ends at the current term without generating a new billing cycle. please follow these steps:

Go to the Azure portal.

In the global search box at the top of the page, enter SaaS and then under Services, select SaaS.

The SaaS blade in the Azure portal displays your SaaS subscriptions.

In the Filter by Name box, enter the subscription name and then in the Name column, select the subscription.

● The Product and plan details page for the offer appears where you can see recurring billing is turned on and the date that the subscription renews.

The screenshot shows the Azure portal interface for a SaaS subscription. The left sidebar contains navigation links: Overview, Activity log, Access control (IAM), Tags, Automation, Tasks (preview), and Support + troubleshooting. The main content area is titled 'Product and plan details' and includes a 'View all your SaaS subscriptions' link. A green message states: 'Your subscription was configured successfully. Select Open SaaS Account on publisher's site to navigate to the publisher's external website'. Below this is a link 'Open SaaS Account on publisher's site'. A table lists subscription details:

Basic - 1-month	Billing term & price	Created	Current term	Recurring billing
