The following questionnaire will provide the opportunity to complete and submit your tax form electronically.

To electronically sign the form, please read and accept the terms of the E-Sign Act:

acknowledging your revocation of the E-SIGN Act. After revoking the E-SIGN Act, you will be required to complete the paper version of these Forms and related documents until you reaffirm your consent to the E-SIGN Act.

You understand and agree that no special hardware and software requirements are needed for access to or retention of your electronic records other than those required to access the Internet and this website, as well as the ability to register for your unique and secure user name and password. In addition to printing the recommended copy(s) of the tax form for your official records, you will have access to printers and required materials as well as a program to access, read and reproduce such documents in ".PDF" format. Should any technological change or upgrade be made that will affect your ability to access your Forms, we will notify you by e-mail and remind you of your right to withdraw your consent to receive electronic records.

To indicate your consent to the E-SIGN Act, you must check all four boxes. If you do not wish to sign your form electronically, select "Decline E-Sign".

- ☒ I have read, understood, and consent to the E-SIGN Act.
- ☒ I acknowledge that it is my obligation to immediately provide notification if there is a change in my e-mail address or other location to which the electronic records may be provided.
- ☒ Acknowledgement of digital signature.
- ☒ In the event I withdraw my consent, I acknowledge that it is my obligation to provide notification of the address or other location to which paper records may be provided.

enter your TIN in the appropriate box. The TIN provided must match the name given on line 1 to avoid backup withholding. For individuals, this is generally your social security number (SSN). However, for a resident alien, sole proprietor, or disregarded entity, see the instructions for Part I, later. For other entities, it is your employer identification number (EIN). If you do not have a number, see How to get a TIN, later.

Note: If the account is in more than one name, see the instructions for line 1. Also see What Name and Number To Give the Requester for guidelines on whose number to enter.

Part II Certification

Under penalties of perjury, I certify that:

1. The number shown on this form is my correct taxpayer identification number (or I am waiting for a number to be issued to me); and

2. I am not subject to backup withholding because: (a) I am exempt from backup withholding, or (b) I have not been notified by the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) that I am subject to backup withholding as a result of a failure to report all interest or dividends, or (c) the IRS has notified me that I am no longer subject to backup withholding; and

3. I am a U.S. citizen or other U.S. person (defined below); and

4. The FATCA code(s) entered on this form (if any) indicating that I am exempt from FATCA reporting is correct.

Certification instructions.

You must cross out item 2 above if you have been notified by the IRS that you are currently subject to backup withholding. If you have failed to report all interest and dividends on your tax return. For real estate transactions, item 2 does not apply. For mortgage interest acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, contributions to an individual retirement arrangement (IRA), and general other than interest and dividends, you are not required to sign the certification, but you must provide your correct TIN. See the instructions to the form.

Future developments.

For the latest information about developments related to Form W-9 and its instructions, such as legislation enacted after they were published, go to www.irs.gov/FormW9.

Purpose of Form

An individual or entity (Form W-9 requester) who is required to file an information return with the IRS must obtain your correct taxpayer identification number (TIN) which may be your social security number (SSN), individual taxpayer identification number (ITIN), adoption taxpayer identification number (ATIN), or employer identification number (EIN), to report on an information return the amount paid to you, or other amount reportable on an information return. Examples of information returns include, but are not limited to, the following:

- Form 1099-INT (interest earned or paid)
- Form 1099-DIV (dividends, including those from stock funds)
- Form 1099-MISC (various types of income, prizes, awards, proceeds)
- Form 1099-B (stock or mutual fund sales and certain transactions by brokers)
- Form 1099-S (proceeds from real estate transactions)
- Form 1099-K (merchant card and third party network)
- Form 1098 (home mortgage interest), 1098-E (student loan interest)
- Form 1099-C (canceled debt)
- Form 1099-A (acquisition or abandonment of secured property)

Use Form W-9 only if you are a U.S. person (including a resident alien), to provide your correct TIN.

If you do not return Form W-9 to the requester with a TIN, you may be subject to backup withholding. See What is backup withholding, later.
