

How to find your marketplace invoice?

docs.wetransact.io/how-to-find-your-marketplace-invoice

Finding your Marketplace invoice in Partner Center lets you review charges for your Marketplace transactions, helping you track payments, reconcile accounts, and maintain accurate financial records. Please follow the steps below to find the invoice:

● Sign in to Azure and Type "invoice"

● Click on Invoices

Click on Your Billing Account

Microsoft Azure

Home > Search > Cost Management + Billing | Billing scopes

Search Refresh Export to CSV Feedback

A billing scope identifies your access. You may have access to multiple billing scopes. For example, you may have a billing account that you use for your personal projects and have access to your organization's billing account. The table below lists the scopes in WeTransact directory that you've access to. Switch directory to view scopes in other directories. Learn more

☐ Remember my selection ☐ As a Global administrator, check this box to view all Microsoft Customer Agreement (MCA) scopes in WeTransact (wetransact.io) directory (by default, you only see the scopes that you've access to)

Search by billing scope name or your role
