E-SIGN

The following questionnaire will provide the opportunity to complete and submit your tax form electronically.

To electronically sign the form, please read and accept the terms of the E-SIGN Act:

acknowledging your revocation of the E-SIGN Act. After revoking the E-SIGN Act, you will be required to complete the paper version of these Forms and related documents until you receive your consent to the E-SIGN Act.

You understand and agree that no special hardware and software requirements are necessary to access to or retention of your electronic records other than those required to access the website, as well as the ability to register for your unique and secure user account and password. In addition to printing the recommended copy(s) of the tax form for your official use, you will have access to printers and required materials as well as a program to access and reproduce such documents in ".PDF" format. Should any technological change or upgrade occur that will affect your ability to access your Forms, we will notify you by e-mail and reserve your right to withdraw your consent to receive electronic records.

To indicate your consent to the E-SIGN Act, you must check all four boxes. If you do not wish to sign your form electronically, select "Decline E-Sign".

- ☒ I have read, understood, and consent to the E-SIGN Act.
- ☒ I acknowledge that it is my obligation to immediately provide notification if there is a change in my e-mail address or other location to which electronic records may be provided.
- ☒ Acknowledgement of digital signature.
- ☒ In the event I withdraw my consent, I acknowledge that it is my obligation to provide notification of the address or other location to which paper records may be provided.
