If you want to check auto-renew on your Azure subscriptions to ensure whether your services will automatically renew at the end of the term, helping you manage costs and avoid unexpected charges. Please check the below steps:

Go to the Azure portal.

In the global search box at the top of the page, enter SaaS and then under Services, select SaaS.

The SaaS blade in the Azure portal displays your SaaS subscriptions.

In the Filter by Name box, enter the subscription name and then in the Name column, select the subscription.

● The Product and plan details page for the offer appears where you can see recurring billing is turned on and the date that the subscription renews.

The screenshot shows the Azure portal interface for a SaaS subscription. The left sidebar contains navigation links: Overview, Activity log, Access control (IAM), Tags, Automation, Tasks (preview), and Support + troubleshooting. The main content area is titled 'Product and plan details' and includes a 'CMS' icon, the subscription name 'CMS Offer - Basic - 1-month', and a description 'Test test Industry Experiences test'. A green message states: 'Your subscription was configured successfully. Select Open SaaS Account on publisher's site to navigate to the publisher's external website'. Below this is a link 'Open SaaS Account on publisher's site'. A table displays subscription details:

	Basic - 1-month	Billing term & price	Created on	Current term	Recurring billing

Additional links include 'Change plan', 'Azure subscription: IndustryExperiencesInternal', and 'Change Azure subscription'.

● Under Recurring billing, select the Edit recurring billing link if you want to make any changes.
